"OUT OF THE PAST"

by Beulah Bailey Woolard

A brief representation of the people and events that have contributed to the creation, growth, decline, and recovery of learning down through the ages and of the three-fold classical heritage of today's Education; namely: Greek Science and Art, Roman Law and Government, and Christian Church and Creed.

Scene: An assumed entrance to a school building.

CLASS ODE

Tune: "A Perfect Day"

51
We have come to the end of our years at Gould,
And we pause on this day of days,
While we greet once more all our friends so dear,
Ere we go on our separate ways.
You should know that our hearts are filled with thanks
To parents and teachers true
For all that the passing years have brought
'Neath the folds of the "gold and blue."

Well, this is the day when good byes be said
To schoolmates and classmates, too;
Though we wander far in the years ahead,
We oft will remember you.
We'll sigh for the days that no more will return,
And for faces we cannot see;
But wherever we are and whate'er betide,
Dear Gould, we'll be true to thee.
